

Business Management Teacher

Do you want to combine your love of teaching with living in a beautiful, traditional and very sunny part of Andalucía, Spain?

The British School of Córdoba is now looking to recruit an experienced teacher of Business, commencing September 2022. The British School of Córdoba is a candidate school for the IB Diploma Programme and is pursuing authorization as an IB World School from September 2022.

We are therefore particularly interested in recruiting staff with experience of IB Business Management.

The British School of Córdoba, is a leading full school (3-18) with approximately 500 pupils on roll and serves the historic city of Córdoba in Andalucía. The School has established itself as a leading private school in the area, offering a high-quality British education that prides itself on its child-centered learning and excellent university entry results, both for Spanish and International Universities.

The ideal candidate will also be able to teach IGCSE Business Studies and A2 Economics and be willing to contribute to the full life of a vibrant school. All teaching posts offer a gross salary of circa 27,000 euros p.a.

Interested?

Please send your CV and cover letter (in English) to jobs@bscordoba.es.

All applications are subject to safeguarding checks including recent DBS or equivalent police checks.